Auction Note - Jay Steed, a force in the communities in the Branson area and friend to so many, passed away last October. This construction division of the many Steed Companies is completing their final pending jobs and this auction will liquidate all equipment, trucks, trailers, materials, shop and support items! The Steed Legacy and Story continues as the family will continue in the development and real estate businesses.

We encourage online bidding but customers will be allowed onsite as well. Of course, online pre-bidding, early bidding, and max bidding will be available online to begin a few days before the auction.
